Saginaw County Road Commission managing director receives statewide Distinguished Service Award

LANSING, MI – Dennis Borchard, managing director of the Saginaw County Road Commission (SCRC), was honored by the County Road Association of Michigan with a Distinguished Service Award at the 2026 CRA Highway Conference in Lansing.

Distinguished Service Awards recognize road agency staff and commissioners who have dedicated their time and service in an outstanding manner to the advancement of the county road and bridge system in Michigan.

Borchard has served SCRC for 35 years. He began his career in 1990 as a foreman and worked his way up to managing director.

Throughout his tenure, colleagues credit Borchard’s leadership with elevating SCRC through numerous accomplishments achieved by the entire team under his direction.

CRA President Jerry Byrne, managing director, Kent County Road Commission (right), presents Dennis Borchard, Saginaw County Road Commission, with a Distinguished Service Award.

“Dennis’s leadership and commitment have made a lasting impact not only in Saginaw County, but across Michigan,” said Denise Donohue, CRA CEO. “His ability to bring people together and deliver results exemplifies the very best of public service.”

The 83 members of the County Road Association of Michigan represent the unified voice for a safe and efficient county transportation infrastructure system in Michigan, including appropriate stewardship of the public's right-of-way in rural and urban Michigan. Collectively, Michigan's county road agencies manage 75% of all roads in the state, including 90,500 miles of roads and 5,900 bridges. County road agencies also maintain the state's highway system in 63 counties. Michigan has the nation's fourth-largest local road system.
